General material

Newspapers – Among the newspapers in our collection are the Yorkshire Post, Yorkshire Evening Post, Leeds Mercury, Yorkshire Evening News, plus weekly papers. Although we don't have a complete index to our newspapers, we do have a partial index which staff can search for you.

Photographs – Our collection of images can be viewed at www.leodis.net

Census records 1841 – 1911 – These are available to view online via the Ancestry.com website, which is free to access in any Leeds Library, and on microfilm in the department. The census was taken every ten years and is a 'snapshot' of a household on a particular night. The information recorded includes names, addresses, occupations, birth places and marital status.

Maps – We have a large collection of Leeds and Yorkshire Ordnance Survey maps dating back to 1850s. We also have a collection of non - OS map, e.g. Leeds City Council Civic Survey Maps from 1917, which show land and building use in Leeds at the time.

Trade directories - These list names and addresses of individuals who were in business or had a trade, and the names and addresses of businesses, factories, municipal offices, places of worship, educational establishments, local societies, etc

Electoral registers – The Library holds a set of Leeds electoral registers from 1832 to the present day. The electoral registers for other parts of West Yorkshire (1840 – 1962) are now available to search and view online via the Ancestry website.

Parish magazines – The Library holds a collection of parish magazines, produced by churches/chapels in Leeds, dating back to the 19th century.

Local government material – This includes Leeds City Council Annual Accounts; Education Committee proceedings; Council Proceedings (minutes of committee meetings); Annual Reports of the different council committees and the Reports of the Leeds Medical Office of Health (1911 - 16 & 1918 onwards).
